Mrs. Joyce Robinson

Dedication

Senior girls display a token of their appreciation to Mrs. Robinson.

FOR her patience and understanding through the eight years that she has been a senior teacher and sponsor;

FOR her untiring work with the many one-act and senior plays which we have so fully enjoyed and from which we have gained confidence and poise;

FOR her understanding of our problems, her kindness in our difficulties, her encouragement of our talents and ambitions, and most of all,

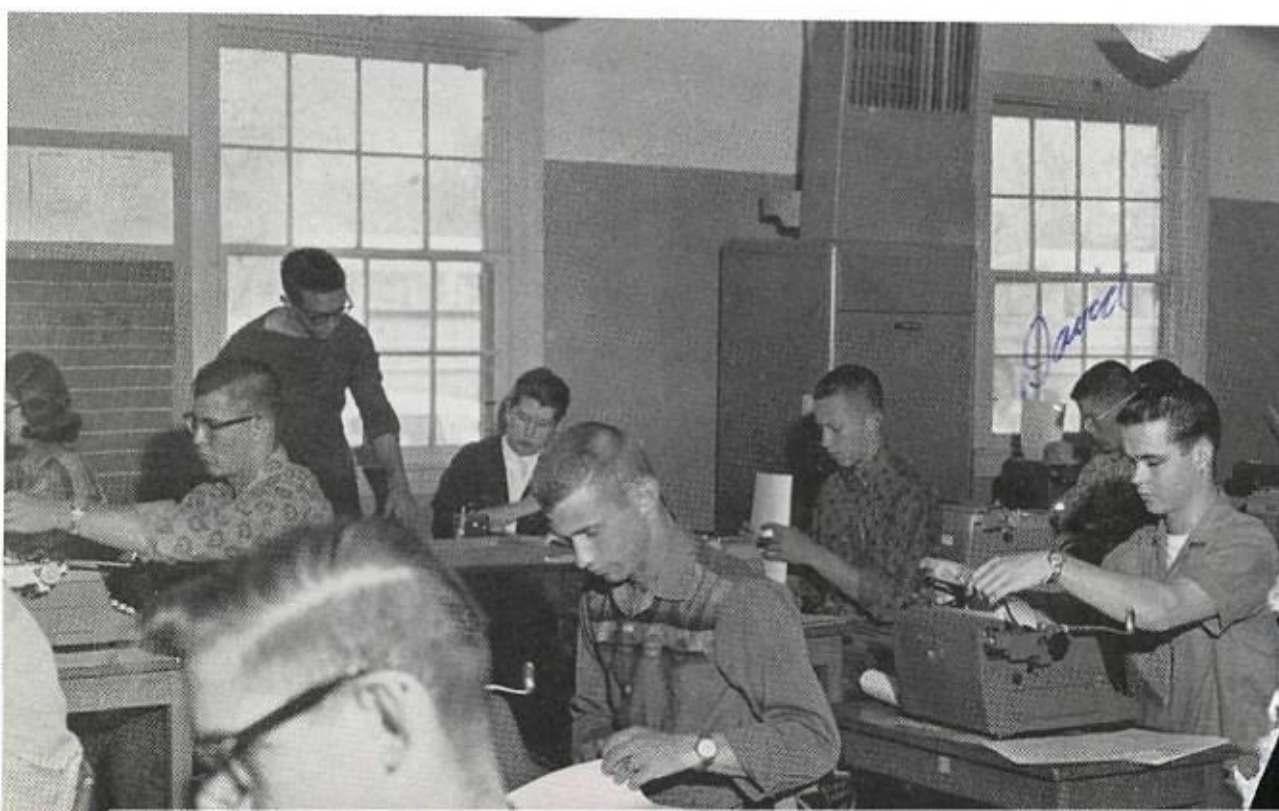

FOR her sincere and wholesome attitude toward life,

We appreciatively dedicate this 1960-61 Tiger Tales
to MRS. JOYCE ROBINSON.

Foreword

In this, the eleventh edition of Tiger Tales, we have attempted to record the outstanding and everyday events of the 1960-61 Lancaster school year. If this yearbook helps you to remember this year and gives you as much pleasure in 1981 or 2001 as it does today, our efforts will have been rewarded.

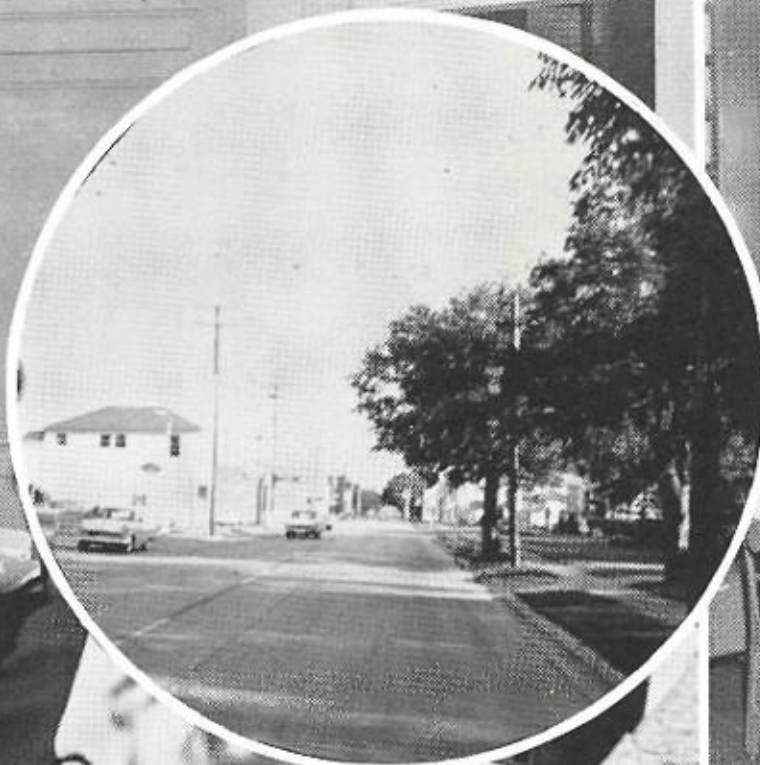

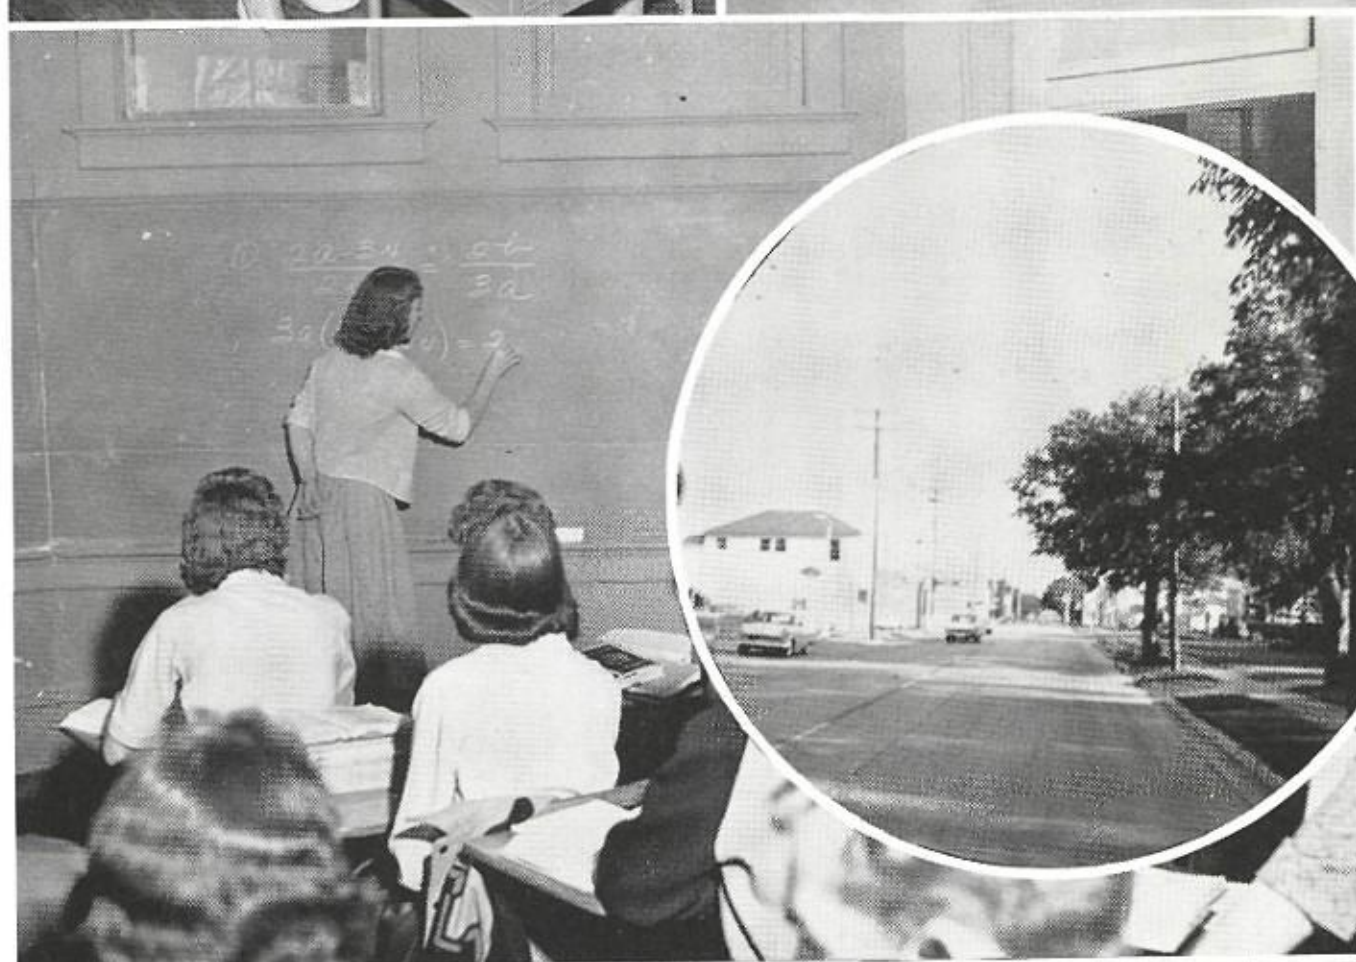

To the staff, our advisor, our advertisers, those who furnished photographs, and all who helped in the production of this annual, "Thank you."

We have done all we can; we hope you are pleased with your annual.

LANCASTER BOARD OF EDUCATION

We stand on the rim of tomorrow's horizon.
Its hallmark is change;
Its quest is of the mind and spirit;
Its frontier stretches to the stars;
Yet all the flowers of all the tomorrows are in the seed of today.

* * *

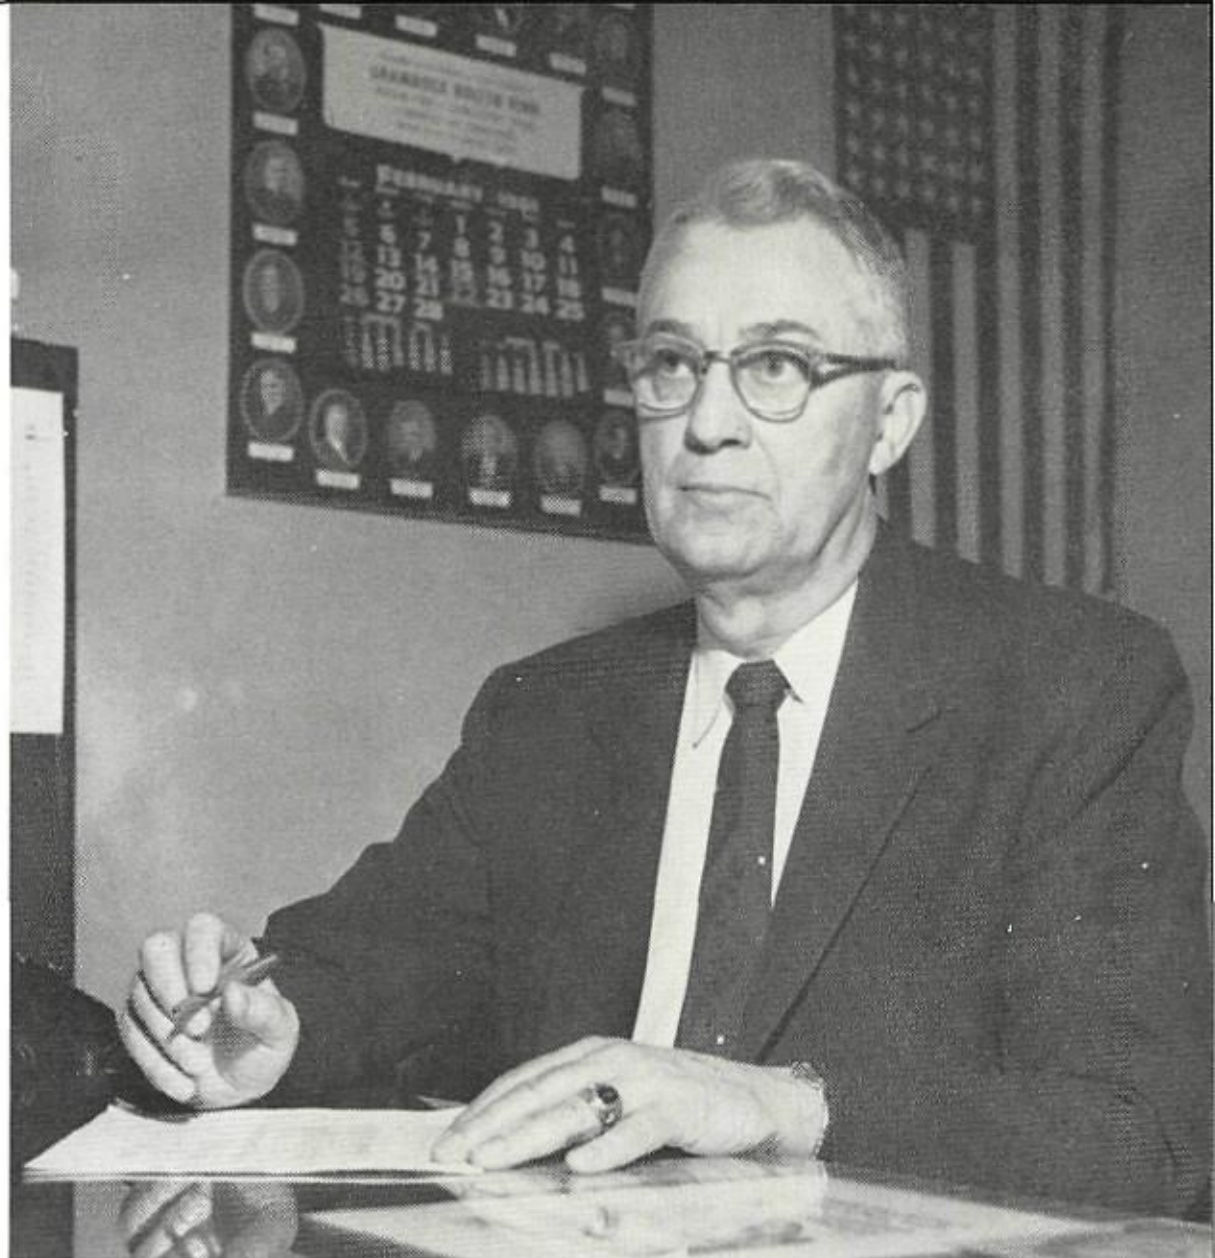

In order that the children and youth of the Lancaster community may participate fully in building, preserving, and extending the American heritage in Today's and Tomorrow's world,
The Lancaster Independent School District offers educational opportunities to its CHILDREN and YOUTH, through policies established by its elected representatives,
THE LANCASTER BOARD OF EDUCATION,
these policies being implemented by the Administrators, offered to students by Classroom Teachers, and facilitated by other members of the Staff.

MR. J.E. DAWSON, Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1961:

I am proud of you, and for each of you I wish a worthwhile and satisfying life for decades to come. If you wonder how much control you have over this life, I refer you to the answer given by novelist Boris Pasternak, when he was asked, "Can a man control his future?"

"Yes," he answered; "I believe that men everywhere have more power over the future than ever before. The important thing is that we choose to exercise it. What we do today determines how the world shall go, for tomorrow is made up of the sum total of today's experiences. No one knows what the formula is, nor how slight a change may reshape the pattern to our heart's desire. Far from feeling hopeless or helpless, we must seize every opportunity, however small, to help the world around us toward peace, productivity, and human brotherhood."

Every day brings choices: this calls for courage, but courage has genius, power, and magic in it. You are beginning with high ideals and courage: follow these ideals and exercise careful choices, and your control of your future will amaze you.

Sincerely,

J. Edwin Dawson

MR. W. W. ALFRED, Principal, Lancaster High School

TO THE CLASS OF 1961:

As you, the members of the Fifty-Sixth class to be graduated from Lancaster High School, go now into new and larger areas of living, whether they be homemaking, business, or further education, we assure you of our hopes that you will have lives successful in every way, and of our expectations that you will continue to be the fine people you have been in your years with us.

We are proud of what you have done, and have high expectations of what you will do. To say what the future holds is impossible, for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today, and the reality of tomorrow. That your share in that tomorrow be great beyond your expectations and worthwhile to all with whom you come into contact is the sincere wish of the faculty and administration of Lancaster High School.

Sincerely,

W. W. Alfred

TO THE CLASS OF 1961

Though you may forget most of what we studied in the class hours that we spent together this year, there are seven words from Wordsworth that I hope you will remember:

We live by Admiration, Hope, and Love.

That which we admire, we grow to be like; that which we hope for, we strive to achieve; and it is Hope for things better which grows into Faith in Things Unseen.

We are shaped and fashioned by what we love: People, ideas, ideals.

We control our own Present and Future as we select and admit into our hearts the ideas, ideals, and people whom we grow to love; and as we work toward that which we admire and hope for.

Yet when we manfully strive and feel that we fall short of our goals, remember with me the words by Stevenson, "To travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive, and the true success is to labor."

Wherever you may be, may you be strengthened by the knowledge that you in turn strengthened us in Lancaster High by being people whom we could admire, hope much of, and certainly love.

Sincerely,

Elsie Robertson

TEACHER

James J. Metcalfe

The duties of a teacher are heavy as can be . . .

Regardless of the type of school . . . Or whether "he" or "she" . . .

Because the teacher must possess . . . A knowledge that will shine . . .

And in addition has to keep . . . The students right in line.

There are a thousand questions to . . . Be answered every day . . .

 The pleasures of an evening out . . . Are seldom to be shared . . .
 Because the next day's lesson must . . . Be carefully prepared . . .
 And yet there is a glory in . . . This timeless atmosphere . . .
 The teacher helps tomorrow's world . . . Prepare for its career.

When students reach THE EIGHTH GRADE, they have begun to feel so at home in the band, on the junior high athletic teams, that rather reluctantly they look toward the next move: into high school. Many of them feel that THE EIGHTH GRADE just shouldn't end.

THE STUDENT ACTIVITY COUNCIL of Lancaster School is composed of one elected representative from each homeroom. These representatives elect their own officers, and the president of the ACTIVITY COUNCIL serves as President of the Student Body. Meeting with Sponsor W. W. Alfred and co-sponsor Mrs. Ruth Clark and Miss Elsie Robertson, they work toward promoting the general welfare of the student body and the school as a whole.

Activities in 1960-61 included "Howdy Day," participation in the Lancaster Christmas Parade, a Clean-Up Campaign for the high school campus, and presentation of the Monday morning devotionals. Each Council member presented one devotional.

The PRESS CLUB of Lancaster High School publishes the school paper, The Lancastrian. Much hard work and effort was put forth by all members to produce a better paper. At the annual dinner, awards were presented to Terrye Strickland, Janie Ford, Mary Ann Pritchett, Polly Jo Pillow, Mary Jane Orr, and Jean Bolton for their special effort in putting out the paper. Also, the editor, Jean Bolton, was recognized for her outstanding contribution to the paper.

OFFICE HELPERS in Lancaster High assist in the period-by-period recording of attendance for each class, as well as doing typing, running errands, operating the duplicating machine, showing new pupils and visitors about the school.

Under the guidance and direction of Mrs. Pauline Love and Mr. W. W. Alfred, Visiting Teacher and Principal, these students learn many things about office work in addition to the help which they give the school.

The highlights of the SPANISH CLUB for 1960-61 were its trip to San Antonio and its annual Christmas "fiesta." El Circulo de Espanol worked hard selling concessions at basketball games and sponsoring bake sales in order to finance its trip to San Antonio, but its efforts were rewarded. In April, the club journeyed to San Antonio, stopping along the way to see the state capitol in Austin and the marine life in San Marcos.

The LANCASTER FUTURE FARMER CHAPTER had a very successful year in 1960-61, under the capable leadership of President Donald Cheshier and Vice-President John Bowman.

The Chapter was honored for the first time in its recorded 27-year history by having two of its members, Donald Cheshier and Howard McCalla, awarded the coveted Lone Star Farmer Degree, which is the highest degree and honor that the state of Texas awards to Future Farmer members.

The Chapter had a very active program of work this year which included participation and winning its share of honors in the 4-school project "Quadrangle Show," the Texas State Fair in Dallas, Ellis County Purebred Livestock Show at Waxahachie, Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show, Midlothian Show, and the Dallas County Dairy Day.

Highlight of the year was the Parent and Son Banquet climaxed by a fine program furnished by Dr. E. V. Walton, former Lancaster Vo-Ag Teacher and Head of Ag Education now at Texas A&M.

Kenneth Hardin won the District Public Speaking Contest for the Chapter and the Chapter was second and third respectively with Green Hand and Chapter Conducting Teams, also third in Chapter Farmer Skill Demonstration.

Another major Chapter project was the High School ground's tree trimming and pruning program which was done by all the Vo-Ag boys over a three-week period. The project eliminated many hazardous branches, parasitic growth and improved the looks of the High School campus.

A TEACHER REFLECTS

"I saw Tomorrow marching by on little children's feet,
Within their form and faces
read her prophecy complete;
I saw Tomorrow look at me from little children's eyes,
And thought how wisely we would teach, if we were wise."

The members of the Elsie Robertson Chapter of the FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA tried during the year 1960-61 to learn from experienced teachers the problems but also the rewards of teaching, and most of all the great aim of teaching—to show mankind its heritage from the past and its common hope for the future.

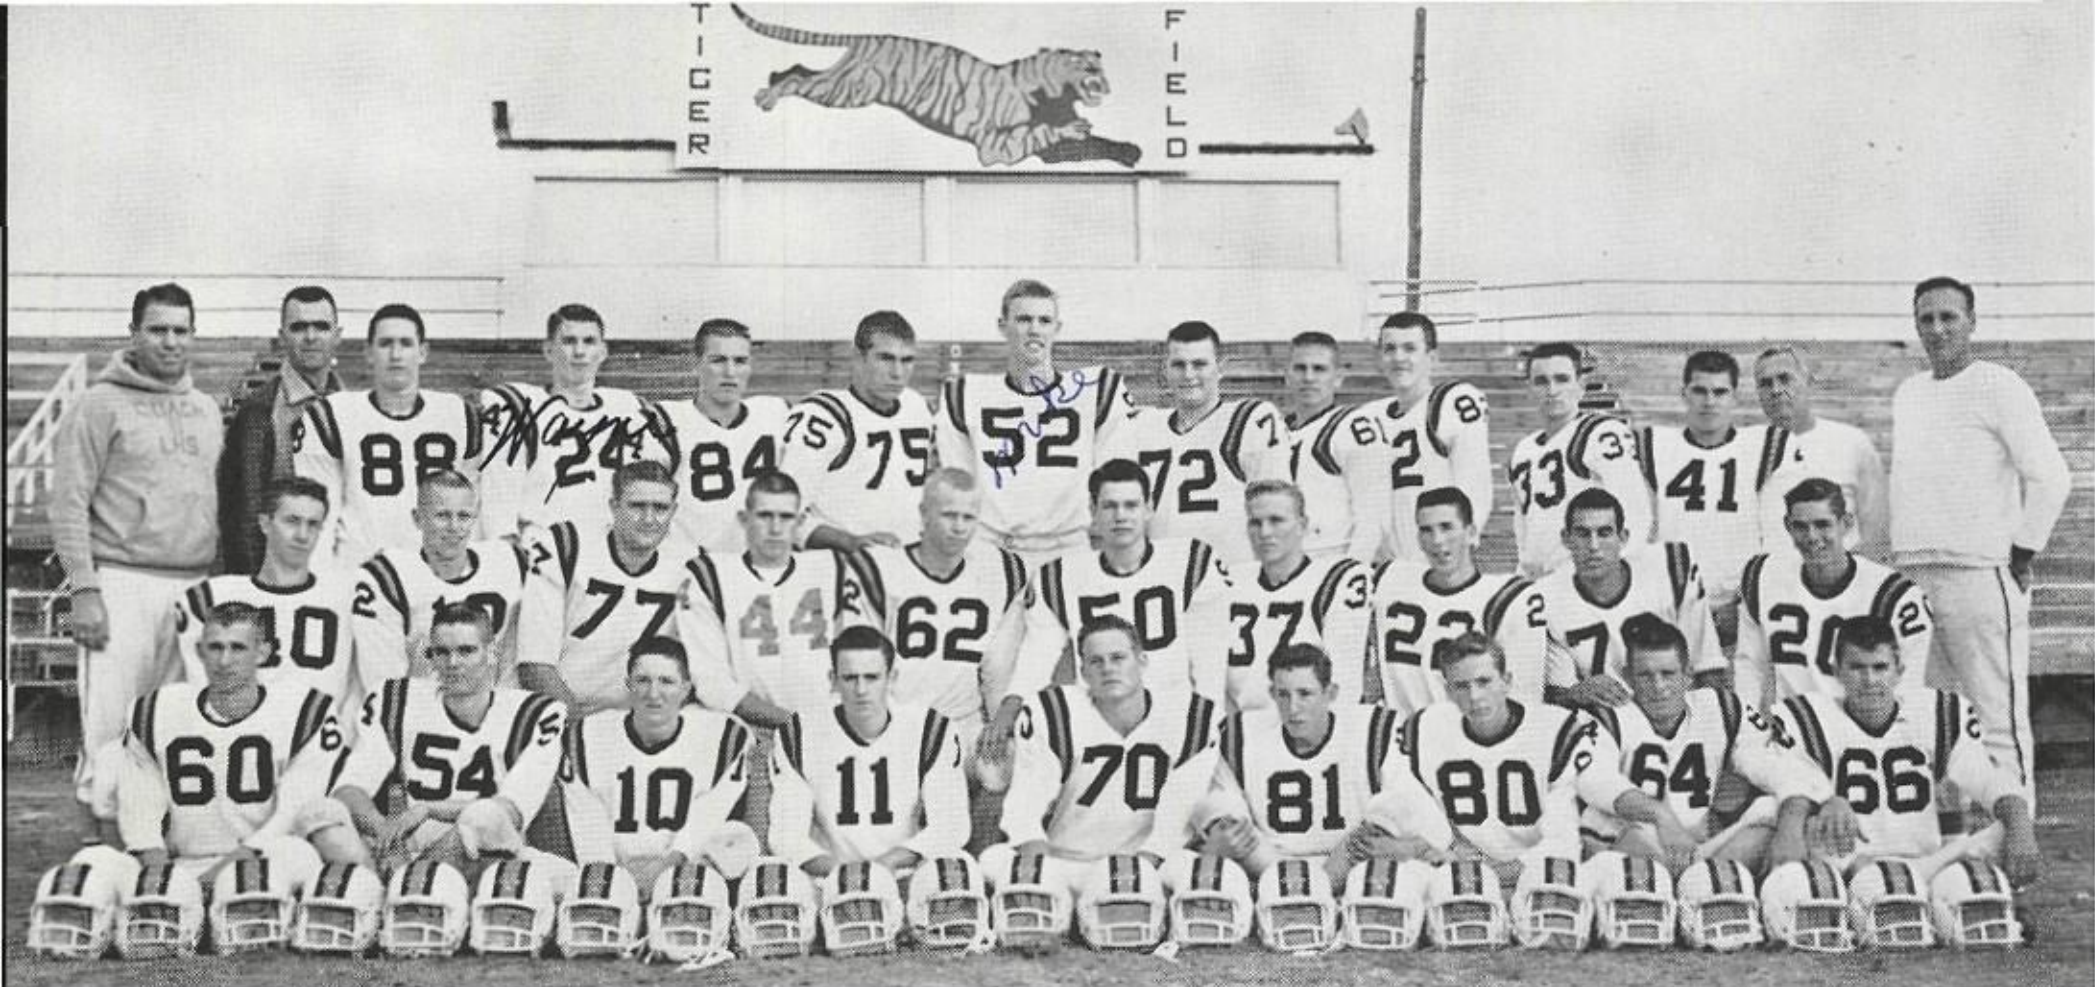

No course in school is more important than English I. Essential to successful work in high school, in business, or in college is the ability to express one's ideas clearly in written and oral language . . . and to understand what others have written.

One of Mrs. Taylor's freshman English classes.

After seeing a mighty Olney football team overpower our Tigers, Mr. Dunaway stated that if Olney did not win the AA State Football Championship, he would roll a peanut with his nose. To everyone, there seemed to be no danger of a skinned nose for Mr. Dunaway. Olney would surely win the state championship. But, Olney lost to a magnificent Denver City eleven, and Mr. E. L. Dunaway rolled a peanut with his nose in front of the school, teaching a lesson about living not learned in the classroom.

Other than the state cross-country meet, Lancaster participated in meets with Wilmer-Hutchins, Duncanville, Rylie, Ennis, and was the only AA school represented in the Jesuit cross-country meet.

Lancaster track season opened on March 18 with the Irving Airplane Relays. On March 25, 1961, Lancaster participated in the East Texas State Relays. District 11-AA held its district meet at Sprague Field on April 10. Lancaster placed third by having seven boys place in the district meet, sending four of them to regional. On the following page are the boys who participated in the district meet.

THE SPIRIT OF THE WORKER

"When love and skill work together, expect a masterpiece."

—Ruskin

Life is indeed darkness save when there is urge,
And all urge is blind save
when there is knowledge,
And all knowledge is vain save
when there is work,
And all work is empty save
when there is love;
And when you work with love you bind yourself to yourself, and to one another, and to God.
And what is it to work with love?

It is to weave the cloth with threads drawn from your heart, even as if your beloved were to wear that cloth.

It is to build a house with affection, even as if your beloved were to dwell in that house.

It is to sow seeds with tenderness and reap the harvest with joy, even as if your beloved were to eat the fruit.

It is to charge all things you fashion with a breath of your own spirit.

—"The Prophet" by Kahlil Gibran.

Our Town

Give all a town in which to dwell
One like our very own:
A town of beautiful houses—
And every house a home;
A town of fine churches and schools
Where streets are safe and wide;
A town where cleanliness is found,
One that has civic pride;
A town of many stalwart trees
Providing restful shade;
A town with a friendly Main Street
Where fine friendships are made;
A town that's one big neighborhood
Where brotherhood is shown.

A town like this is near our hearts:
Give us each one our own.
